

Managing and Protecting our Farms, Forests, and Open Spaces: A Workshop Series

1. Land Protection Success Stories Saturday 1/26/19 from 10 am to 12 pm

- Learn from and chat with other local landowners about options for taking care of and protecting land.
- Guest speakers Walter Bickford of the Berlin Conservation Commission and Christa Collins of Sudbury Valley Trustees.
- Pie and coffee will be provided.
- To be held Saturday January 26, 2019 from 10 am to 12 pm at the Houghton Building, 697 Main Street in Bolton, Massachusetts. Snow date February 2, 2019 from 12 pm to 2 pm (note new time) at the Houghton Building.

About the Workshop Series

This series of four free workshops is for current property owners and area residents to share experiences and learn more about land protection and management techniques such as conservation restrictions, agricultural preservation restrictions, and Chapter 61 tax-incentive programs.

The workshops will feature discussions with current farm owners, land owners, foresters, and conservation experts about conservation options and resources for land owners and community members.

Up-to-date information and details about the workshops are available on the Town of Bolton Conservation Commission website or by contacting Sara Amish of Sudbury Valley Trustees at 978-443-5588, ex 138 or at SAmish@SVTweb.org or Jonathan Moore at 978-505-7450 or JMoore@SVTweb.org.

These workshops are open to everyone, including residents of Bolton and all area towns.

Presented by: Bolton Agricultural Commission, Bolton Conservation Commission, Bolton Conservation Trust, Sudbury Valley Trustees

