Wilder Farm Conservation Area: The original 5.6 acre parcel was purchased by the Town from the Trustees of Reservations in 1991. The property contains a small pond and part of an agricultural field. It is adjacent to 27.3 acres of farmed Conservation Land. The Still River flows under the old railroad bed close to Route 117 and through the area to feed the Wilder Goose Pond. During wet periods or due to beaver activity, the pond can spread over the swamp.

Goose Pond Trail: This area was donated to the Town in 2019 as part of the Tadmor residential development. This trail meanders to the cul-de-sac at the end of a private driveway. A sidewalk was created from the development to Forbush Mill Rd.

Suggested walks: Convenient. The Wilder Farm trails offer a quiet route for pedestrians to avoid traffic on Route 117. The Tadmor sidewalk ends opposite the high school at a point near the Post Office and businesses at the intersection of Forbush Mill Rd. and Route 117.

Seasonal. At certain dry times of year it is possible to cross the Wilder Conservation Area from the Main St. parking lot to Wilder Rd. using the walkway easement next to the private shared driveway. Note that the plank bridge, sunk in a hollow in the meadow, is difficult to cross.

Wilder Rd. and its view west towards Mt. Wachusett. A small brook ① runs through a culvert close to the high point of the road. It has been said that this is where Henry David Thoreau stopped for refreshment on his walk from Concord to Mt Wachusett in 1842. About 0.4 miles in the opposite direction on Wilder Rd. is the marked site of the Hillside Church that was built by S. V. S. Wilder in 1828. The final gathering was in 1859.

Bolton Conservation Land Rules and Regulations.
